

2nd Call for Registration

2nd International Conference for FOOD SAFETY AND SECURITY

Next Generation Food Safety Technologies addressing Sustainable Development Goals

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Dr Marc Allard
GenomeTrakr database and network: WGS network for real-time characterization and source tracking of foodborne pathogens.

Prof. Shirley Micallef
Antimicrobial resistance in fruits and vegetables: piecing the puzzle

Dr Antonio Logrieco
Mycotoxins in food safety: future challenges and mycokey action

Dr Yi Chen
Listeria monocytogenes, biology, genomics, population structure and epidemiology.

Dr Gerrie du Rand
Food Safety consumer knowledge, attitudes and practices

Prof. Jim Stack
The Global Plant Biosecurity - Food Security Challenge: Protecting Plant Systems to Keep People Healthy

Post conference workshop: Food Safety Genomics 4 Africa

18 October 2018
University of Pretoria, Postgraduate Centre, Room 1-72. Open to all participant
Prof. Lise Korsten	Welcome to participants and introduction of speakers
Dr Marc Allard	Introduction to Genome Trakr and discussion
Prof. Don Cowan	Introduction to facilities and support available at UP, nationally and the international evolution of genomics
Dr Marc Allard	Salmonella and Genome Trakr
Dr Yi Chen	Listeria and Genome Trakr
Dr Marc Allard	Hands on exposure to software available
Dr Marc Allard	Hands on exposure to software: Salmonella
Dr Marc Allard	Hands on exposure to software: Listeria

The programme now includes:
Water Research Commission Dialogue on water, food, nutrition and safety, hosted by WRC as a parallel session on 16 October 2018:
"A #Zero Hunger World by 2030 is possible".

Deadline 7 September

EARLY BIRD
REGISTRATION
NOW OPEN

www.fsas2018.co.za

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

National Research
Foundation

